

Pen Sketch (Please write an essay about yourself i.e., describing your childhood, progressing towards your adult life in a few words, including some memorable events if you've had):

Growing up I was an active kid who played football then found love for rugby. Played to a professional standard whilst maintaining a strong academic front.

I got injured and found University, this is where I came across American Football. I took to this sport very well & enjoyed a 11 year career and playing 10 of those world playing all around the [redacted] was a highlight.

I moved to England working as a structural engineer on a professional job.

The great kids & a lovely finance, life is just great.
