I am a happy and bright eyed person who likes to laugh a lot. I am fit and strong with a muscular frame that has lead me to compete in combat sports and fitness challenges over the years. I have a full head of hair, toothy smile and I look young fo my age. I don't often get ill and have only ever needed to claim one sick day off in ■ years of service.

I also give blood, coming up to ■ donations, this would have been more but have had time off while getting tattoos.

Being positive and confident, I have a large circle of friends which often leads me to go dance at a moments notice.

I work as a firefighter as it suits my fitness lifestyle, teamwork and help others ethos. Being focused to always do better, I also work at a fire service training centre as an instructor on my days off from operational duties.

I wanted to undertake this, as I believe that giving life to make a family whole is one of the greatest acts I could ever do.

You haven't missed out on anything, your life is complete with family and love.

In life, you must be positive and resilient, appreciate what you have and face challenges with strength and bravery.
